Dog Parks

Pieloch Park 1

In the past, finding a decent "dog-friendly" park in Florida was pretty tricky. However, with the opening of Pieloch Park 1, dog owners can now take a sigh of relief. This new park is as good as any dog park can get. With fenced enclosures, obstacle courses, tunnels, places to dig, and fire hydrants splashing water, the park has everything you need to enjoy a good ol' walk with your best buddy.

- 400 W Florida Ave, Melbourne, FL 32901

WEBSITE

Pieloch Park 2

With the massive success of Pieloch Park 1, it didn't take long before another similarly-designed park was opened near Mosswood. This new park (aptly named Pieloch Park 2) features two sections; one for smaller and one for larger dogs. There are plenty of friends to make here, and your dogs will love rubbing their backs on the green grass. Not to mention the doggy splash pad, which is unique in Melbourne.

- 1550 Mosswood Dr, Melbourne, FL 32935

WEBSITE

Pieloch Park 3

Similar to park 2, this massive park features two separate fenced sections. What makes this place stand out is the number of amenities it provides, including dog houses, splashing fire hydrants, bridges, ramps, and much more. This park is an excellent location with a playground for children right next to it and a walkway around a pond, to make sure doggies and their parents have a fun time.

- 400 W Florida Ave, Melbourne, FL 32901

WEBSITE

Wickham Park

Wickham Park is also separated into two sections, one for smaller dogs and one for large dogs. Wickham dog park is one of the largest, if not the largest dog park I've seen in Melbourne, so it's worth checking out. The park offers several amenities, including small pools, water hydrants, gravel-covered trails, areas to give your dog a rinse and soft grass.

- 2500 Parkway Dr, Melbourne, FL 32935

WEBSITE

Viera Town Center Park

With The Viera Town Center park features two parks separated by a central oval lawn. On one side, you have the artificial turf dog park; on the other, there's a small children's park. So this makes a great park to got to, especially if you have dogs and small kids. The park itself isn't that big, but it's still heaven-on-earth for our furry friends.

- 2307 Pizarro Ln, Melbourne, FL 32940

WEBSITE

Viera Bark Park

This dog park is located on Lake Andrew Drive - Viera Bark Park is renowned for its cleanliness and adherence to policies. Although the park doesn't have as much to offer besides the usual open space (very large space on the side for large dogs), different areas for small/large dogs, and waste disposal bags, it's still a great place to spend the evening. Right beside the park, there is a small pond with a seating area.

- Located at the Lake Andrews Dr & Strom Park Dr crossing, south of Wickham Rd.

WEBSITE

Central Bark

The Central Bark dog park. Is a great dog park for everyone living in the neighborhoods of the Addison Village (incl. Sierra Cove, Trasona, etc.). There are two separate sections for small and large dogs, a kids playground and shaded picnic table as well as restrooms facilities. So it's a great place to take your dog and your children alike.

- Located on Millbrook Ave.

WEBSITE

Bryant Adams Park

Located in West Melbourne, you can find the Bryant Adams park. This park also offers two separate fenced sections for small and large dogs as well as a picnic table on a large grassy area, restroom facilities and there is a small splash pool and hoses available to clean your dog after having fun.

- 2285 Minton Rd, West Melbourne, FL 32904

WEBSITE

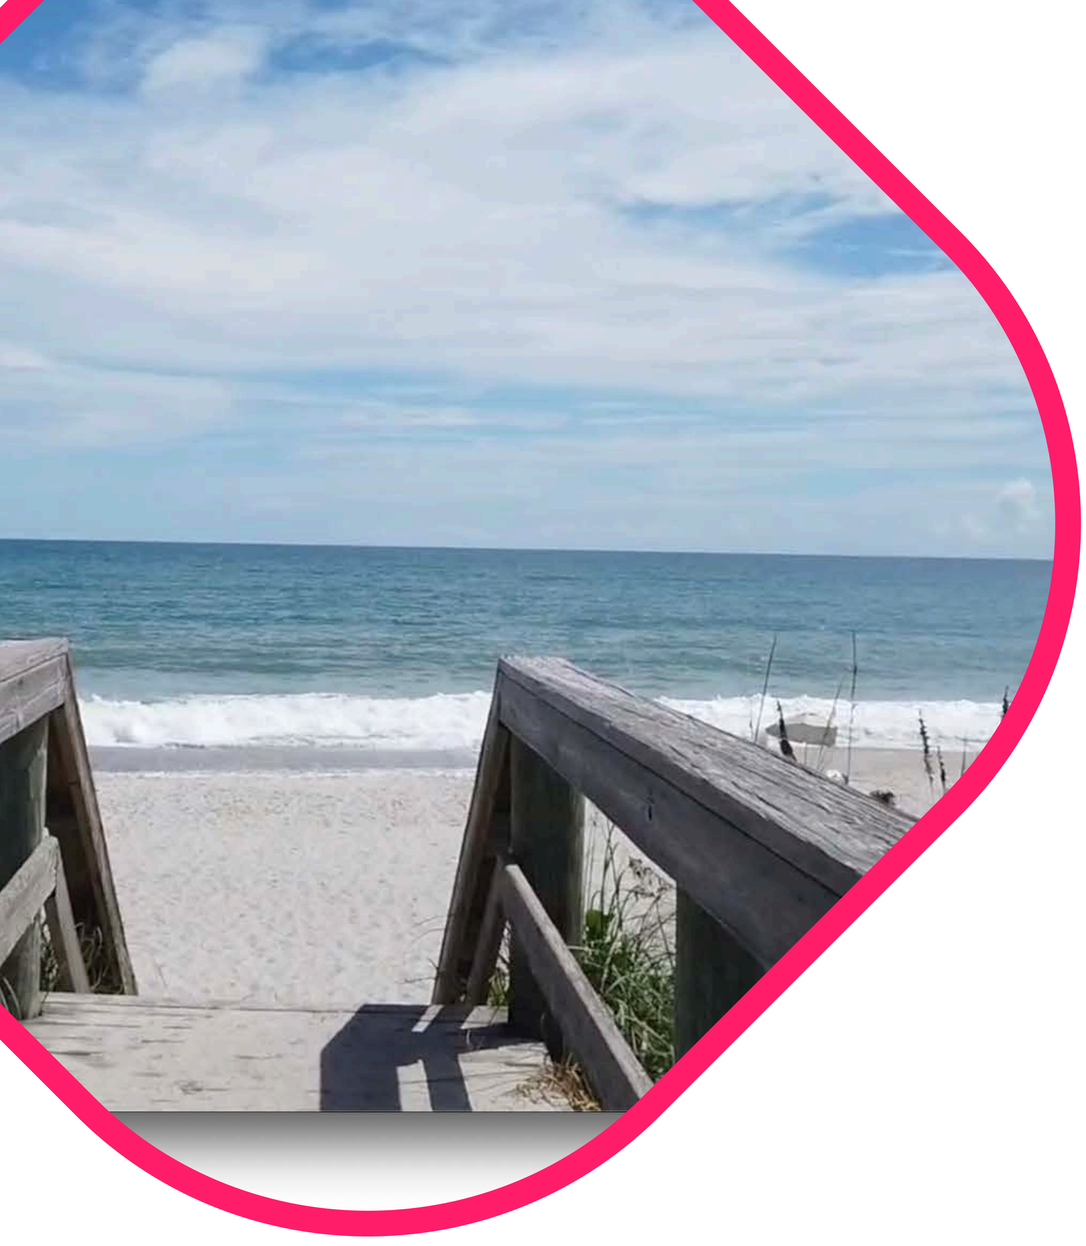

Three Forks Trail

While not officially declared a dog-friendly trail, there are no signs that dogs are not allowed either. So this makes a for a nice 2.6 mile walk with your best friend.

- Parking located at: Three Forks Conservation Area North Trailhead

WEBSITE

Dog Beaches

Canova Beach Park

Located on Highway A1A, Canova beach is a small beach park with showers and restroom facilities. The park has a dedicated area for dogs. You can take your dogs here (be mindful of having them leashed) and let them play in the sand. Once playtime is over, you can head on over to the rinsing area near the restrooms. The park also provides disposal bags so dog owners can clean up after their pets. Overall, the beach is a fantastic place to visit with your furry friend.

- 3299 Highway A1A Indian Harbor Beach, FL

WEBSITE

Cocoa Beach

Cocoa beach offers the perfect place to take your dogs for a leisurely walk on the beach. Between 4th Street South and Murkshe Park (16th Street South), you're allowed to bring your dog onto the beach. However, be sure to have your dogs on a leash throughout the duration of your stay. Dogs are allowed on the beach between 6:00AM-10:00AM and 4:00PM-7:00PM.

- Between 4th Street South to north side of Murkshe Park
